State Officer Update

Hello Section 3!

I have learned so many new and amazing things during this second half of the year, more about your Chapters, attending different conferences and being forever thankful as we prepare for State Convention! Thank you, Section 3, for showing all of your hard work and dedication throughout this year, I am looking forward as we enter banquet season to see more!

See you on The Next Wild Adventure!

State Officer Team Update

Farm Bureau Meeting
During Farm Bureau Annual Meeting we had the opportunity to network with new and existing partners during the trade show and help out with the Discussion Meet Contest! Congratulations to Amy Jenteges for placing First at the Collegiate level!

Check Point #2 Training

Check Point #2 was an amazing time for celebrating, working towards/reviewing our team goals and setting new goals! Allowing for some fun time to adventure the beautiful town of Marshfield as well!

Half-Time Conference

Half-Time Conference is the perfect way to celebrate our 'halfway' point of the year and come together, seeing some familiar faces and new ones as well, as we learn more about becoming Legendary for the second half of the year!

State Officer Team Update

WI FFA Alumni & Supporters Convention

After FFA? What better place to learn more than Alumni & Supporters Convention! Sectional meetings, rounds of workshops, and sessions this was an amazing experience, can't wait for next years!

Corn Soy Expo

Corn Soy expo is something the FFA Organization has never be apart of until now! meeting with new and existing partners and learning more about the corn, soy and pork industries as a whole, this even was full of surprises!

Chapter Visits

So many great memories and stories to share during this time of Chapter Visits! Thank You section 3 for the amazing time visiting your chapters and for welcoming me. I look forward to visiting with you all again during your banquets!

Member of the Month

December

Andrew is a member of the Viroqua FFA. Creating events and experiences that are both impactful and meaningful to Andrew and his chapter is his key priority. Members respect him and follow his leadership both in FFA and throughout the entire school.

January

Chole is a member of the Alma FFA Chapter. Chole is putting her Living to Serve (LTS) plan focused on educating youth about self-worth and human trafficking, into action, by partnering with the Buffalo County Partnership Council (BCPC).

February

The Kickapoo FFA is in good hands with Ellaree's leadership. Her and her officer team have been a very big help with planning FFA week the past two years. She is leaving a legacy that younger members will be able to follow to become the best version of themselves.
